Philadelphia Flyers History at PPL Center

The NHL once again returns to PPL Center as the Lehigh Valley welcomes the start of hockey season in September. This weekend, it's the Philadelphia Flyers and New York Rangers renewing rivalry acquaintances in downtown Allentown.

There's something uniquely special about September hockey. And the opportunity to host games before almost every other city in North America, and at the NHL level, has been embraced by the region and its massive base of enthusiastic hockey fanatics.

This is the fourth season fans at PPL Center have been treated to Rookie Series hockey with the top prospects of the Flyers and Rangers squaring off.

Game 1 of the Rookie Series is Friday at 7:05 and the two teams will rematch on Saturday at 5:05.

After a two-year hiatus, the tradition of the Lehigh Valley welcoming the Philadelphia Flyers to PPL Center resumed in 2022 with our first Rookie Games against the New York Rangers. A new chapter of the "Flyers in the Valley" story unfolded with the Flyers taking a pair of games by scores of 2-1 (OT) and 5-1. Tyson Foerster scored the overtime winner in Game 1 and then Sam Ersson slammed the door with 36 saves to secure the win in Game 2.

The Rangers countered in 2023 with back-to-back wins in Allentown including a third-period rally for a 4-2 decision in the opener followed by 5-1 verdict in the finale. New York Rangers tough guy Matt Rempe came ready to play and the hulking 6'8" tall enforcer showcased his abilities before becoming the talk of the NHL just a few weeks later. Those games also represented Philadelphia's first-ever regulation losses at PPL Center.

The games this weekend represent the tenth occasion for the National Hockey League to call the Queen City home, if only for one very special weekend.

The Flyers are 6-2-3 all-time at PPL Center in various Rookie and preseason games against the New York Rangers, New York Islanders and New Jersey Devils.

The games will be watched closely by the management and coaches of these proud NHL franchises with their first looks of the season at some of their future star players.

FLYERS IN THE VALLEY! HISTORY OF THE PHILADELPHIA FLYERS AT PPL CENTER

September 27, 2014 – Orange 5 – White 3

"Battle on Hamilton!"

The first time fans got to see the winged "P" design of the Philadelphia Flyers at PPL Center was also the first ever professional hockey exhibition in the Lehigh Valley. The historic night before a sold-out crowd enjoyed a Flyers intrasquad contest at the brand-new, state-of-the-art PPL Center. The buzz was palpable and the energy was high as the hockey-hungry region showed how well the newest AHL city would thrive in its sparkling, new venue.

Phantoms head coach Terry Murray was at the Team Orange bench for this contest and was thrilled with what he saw for the brand new hockey market. "I think this is a hockey place. It's a hockey city. I'm not surprised at all that the crowd was as energetic and full as it was today. They're telling us they want more of it and we're ready to get going!"

Team White defenseman Brett Flemming scored the first-ever goal at PPL Center with a shot from the right point with Mark Alt and Zac Rinaldo providing assists on the history-making tally. Team Orange rallied against goalie Anthony Stolarz to post the come-from-behind win for the thrilled crowd who enjoyed their first experience at the city's dazzling and impressive new venue.

September 21, 2015 – Philadelphia Flyers 5 – New York Islanders 3

The Lehigh Valley's first preseason game between two NHL teams saw Claude Giroux, Jake Voracek and Michael Del Zotto lead the Flyers to a 5-3 victory against the Islanders. The debut of "Flyers in the Valley" saw Del Zotto register a goal with an assist while Jake Voracek added a pair of helpers before a raucous crowd of 8,000 orange-clad fans thrilled to watch some of their favorite NHL stars right here in Allentown. Michael Raffl scored less than six minutes in with a power-play strike off a perfectly placed touched pass from Jake Voracek.
