PRESIDENT &
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER
American Hockey League

A Message from the President

Dear Fans,

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the 2026-27 American Hockey League season!

Since our first faceoff in 1936, we have grown exponentially as a league while still remaining true to our roots in our local communities. In our arenas across North America, you have cheered on future superstars, Stanley Cup champions and Hockey Hall of Famers as they have skated in the AHL. As we embark on our 91st season, we remain proud of our commitment to being the top development league for nearly all of the players, coaches, executives, trainers, broadcasters and officials who you see throughout the National Hockey League today.

We look forward to continuing our tradition of excellence in 2026-27, from the excitement of opening night to the pageantry of the AHL All-Star Classic in Cleveland to the pure emotion of the Calder Cup Playoffs.

On behalf of all of our teams, thank you for your ongoing support of the American Hockey League.

Sincerely,

Scott Howson
President & CEO | American Hockey League

The Beginnings ★

Embarking on its 91st season in 2026-27, the American Hockey League is continuing a tradition of excellence that began in 1936 when the Canadian-American Hockey League joined with the International Hockey League to form what is today known as the AHL.

Eight teams hit the ice that first season, representing Buffalo, Cleveland, New Haven, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Providence, Springfield and Syracuse.

Frank Calder, the National Hockey League's president at the time, was instrumental in the forming of this new league, and his name would be given to its championship trophy. The Toronto Marlies are the reigning Calder Cup champions after capturing their second title last spring.

From those roots, the American Hockey League has grown into a 32-team, coast-to-coast league that provides fans with exciting, high-level professional hockey while preparing thousands of players, coaches, officials, executives, trainers, broadcasters and more for careers in the NHL.

By the Numbers ★

87.0%
Percentage of all NHL players in 2025-26 who were graduates of the AHL

901
Former AHL players who skated in the NHL last season

334
AHL players who also played in the NHL in 2025-26

274
Former 1st- and 2nd-round NHL draft picks who skated in the AHL in 2025-26

The Players ★

In today's National Hockey League nearly 90 percent of the players are AHL alumni, including 2025-26 Hart Trophy winner Nikita Kucherov, Norris Trophy recipient Zach Werenski and Vezina Trophy winner Andrei Vasilevskiy. The 2026 Stanley Cup champion Carolina Hurricanes were stocked with AHL graduates including former AHL All-Stars Logan Stankoven and Brandon Bussi.

During the 2025-26 season, a total of 901 AHL alumni played in the National Hockey League. There were 334 players who skated in both leagues last year alone, and 274 former first- and second-round NHL draft picks developed their skills in the AHL last season, including Konsta Helenius, Michael Brandsegg-Nygard, Carter Yakemchuk, Trevor Connelly, Matvei Gridin, David Reinbacher, Bradly Nadeau, and 2026 Calder Cup champions Easton Cowan and Ben Danford.

The Legends ★

For nine decades, the American Hockey League has been home to some of the greatest players in the history of our sport. In fact, there are 140 honored members of the Hockey Hall of Fame who have been affiliated with the AHL during their careers.

All-time greats from Milt Schmidt and Gump Worsley to Roberto Luongo and Martin St. Louis came through the AHL ranks and now find themselves enshrined in Toronto, and the coveted Calder Cup is inscribed with the names of legendary AHL alumni like Johnny Bower, Larry Robinson, Gerry Cheevers, Andy Bathgate, Tim Horton, Al Arbour, Emile Francis, Patrick Roy, Doug Harvey and Billy Smith.

The Coaches ★

At the start of the 2026-27 season, the National Hockey League featured 22 head coaches who were former AHL bench bosses, including 2025-26 Jack Adams Award winner Jon Cooper of the Tampa Bay Lightning and newcomers Manny Malhotra of the Vancouver Canucks and Ryan Craig of the Vegas Golden Knights.

Colorado's Jared Bednar, Washington's Spencer Carbery, New Jersey's Sheldon Keefe, San Jose's Ryan Warsofsky and Seattle's Lane Lambert are also among the current NHL coaches who spent time in the American Hockey League before making the jump.

HISTORY

PHANTOMS HISTORY

PHILADELPHIA PHANTOMS (1996-2009)

From the team's inception during the 1996-97 season until the 2008-09 season (12 total seasons), the Phantoms were known as the Philadelphia Phantoms and played inside of the Philadelphia Spectrum, former home of the Philadelphia Flyers until their current home, the Wells Fargo Center, was completed in 1996.

While in Philadelphia, the team brought home four Division Titles and appeared in the Calder Cup Conference Finals twice, winning two Calder Cup Championships in 1998 and 2005. The Phantoms also hosted the 1999 AHL All-Star Game while in the City of Brotherly Love.

On April 10, 2009, the Phantoms played their final game inside of the Spectrum. Due to the planned closure and demolition of the Philadelphia Spectrum, the former franchise owners sold the team to current owners, Jim and Rob Brooks of the Brooks Sports Group, in 2009.

ADIRONDACK PHANTOMS (2009-2014)

Beginning in the 2009-10 season the Phantoms relocated to Glens Falls, New York, and were renamed the Adirondack Phantoms where they played until the 2013-14 season. Playing out of the Glens Falls Civic Center that was left vacant after the Adirondack Red Wings departed to become the San Antonio Rampage in 1999, the team completed a total of five AHL seasons.

During the franchise's tenure in upstate New York, the team returned to Philadelphia to play in six separate games which included five regular-season contests inside of the now Wells Fargo Center. The team's other game in Philadelphia took place inside of Citizen's Bank Park—home of the Philadelphia Phillies—as it hosted the rival Hershey Bears for the 2012 AHL Outdoor Classic on January 6, just four days after the NHL Winter Classic. The Phantoms beat the Bears in dramatic overtime fashion, 4-3, and the game still holds the record for the highest attendance ever for an AHL contest at 45,653.

In 2011, the Phantoms announced plans to construct a new, state-of-the-art arena in Downtown Allentown, Pennsylvania, where the team would later be moved.

LEHIGH VALLEY PHANTOMS (2014-PRESENT)

At the start of the 2014-15 season, the franchise became known as the Lehigh Valley Phantoms and began playing out of the brand-new PPL Center located in downtown Allentown, PA.

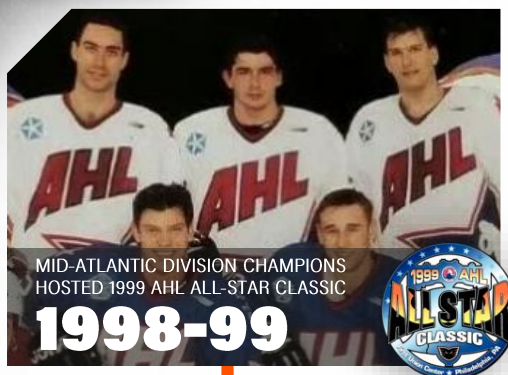

During the team's third season in their new home, the Phantoms finished second in the Atlantic Division and qualified for the Calder Cup Playoffs for the first time in over 5 years. Building on the success of the 2016-17 season, the franchise took another step forward in 2017-18 when they claimed the Atlantic Division title in the regular season and later advanced to the Eastern Conference Finals for the first time since the franchise won the Calder Cup in 2005.

Lehigh Valley also hosted the 2017 AHL All-Star Classic in January of 2017—the second time the Phantoms franchise hosting the league's annual All-Star festivities.

During the 2023-24 season, the Phantoms celebrated their 10th year in Lehigh Valley while clinching a spot in the Calder Cup Playoffs for the fourth time since returning to the Keystone State.

The 2025-26 campaign marked the 30th season in franchise history.

The Philadelphia Flyers joined the NHL in 1967 as part of the league's historic first expansion and have stood as one of the sport's most passionate and recognizable franchises.

The Flyers quickly rose to prominence by becoming the first expansion franchise to win the Stanley Cup, doing so in back-to-back seasons in 1974 and 1975. Powered by legends like Bobby Clarke, Bernie Parent, Bill Barber, and Dave Schultz, the "Broad Street Bullies" earned their nickname through a hard-nosed style of play that defined an era and established a reputation for toughness, passion, and grit that remains a hallmark of the franchise.

Over the years, the Flyers have reached the Stanley Cup Final eight times, carving out a storied legacy filled with unforgettable moments, passionate rivalries, and a tradition of excellence. The franchise has been home to numerous Hall of Fame players whose impact has shaped not only the organization, but the NHL itself—icons such as Bobby Clarke, Bernie Parent, Mark Howe, Eric Lindros, and more. From the championship glory to the electrifying playoff runs and the emergence of new stars in decades following, the Flyers have remained one of the NHL's most storied franchises.

The Phantoms have proudly served as the Flyers' AHL affiliate since the franchise's inception in 1996, developing talent and helping lay the foundation for the future of the organization.

Established in 2001, the Reading Royals have built a strong reputation within the ECHL as a leading franchise in player development. Based in Reading, PA, the Royals have proudly served as a developmental platform for NHL and AHL prospects, playing an instrumental role in advancing players, coaches, and staff throughout the Flyers organization.

Since joining the league as an expansion team, the Royals have qualified for the Kelly Cup Playoffs in nearly every season of their existence, showcasing a tradition of success at the ECHL level while developing a loyal and passionate fan base at Santander Arena.

The pinnacle of the franchise's success came in 2012-13, when the Royals captured the Kelly Cup as ECHL champions after a dominant playoff performance that solidified their place in league history.

Throughout their history, the Royals have helped dozens of players sharpen their skills before making the jump to higher levels. Notable alumni who spent time in Reading before reaching the NHL include Jonathan Quick, James Reimer, Scott Laughton, Philipp Grubauer, Marc-Andre Bourdon, and Jacob Gaucher, among many others.

Ahead of the 2025-26 season, the Flyers and Royals signed a new multi-year affiliation agreement that runs through the 2026-27 season and includes an option for the 2027-28 campaign—reinforcing Reading's role as an essential piece of the Flyers' development ladder as they enter their 25th anniversary season.

PPL CENTER

The arrival of the Lehigh Valley Phantoms in 2014 marked the beginning of a new era for hockey in the Lehigh Valley. After relocating from their previous home in Glens Falls, New York, the Phantoms found a permanent home at the PPL Center in Allentown, Pennsylvania. Since then, the Phantoms have established themselves as a key part of the local community, contributing to the region's growing sports culture and drawing thousands of fans to their games each season.

Since first calling Lehigh Valley home ahead of the 2014-15 season, the Phantoms have played every home game at PPL Center. The team's inaugural season in their new home was met with tremendous enthusiasm, with fans packing the state-of-the-art, 8,500+ capacity (10,000 for concerts) arena in full for 22 of 38 home games.

Additionally, PPL Center has become a hub for family entertainment and community events, welcoming more than 500,000 visitors each year. The facility hosts over 150 events annually, ranging from major concerts and events to community gatherings and charitable functions. This diverse event schedule has cemented the arena as a major contributor to the downtown Allentown economy, drawing visitors to the city and spurring development in the surrounding area. PPL Center has been nominated Internationally by Pollstar Magazine as best new major concert venue and has locally won best concert venue and best live music venue by Lehigh Valley Style and The Morning Call Reader's Choice Awards.

In addition to serving as the home of the Phantoms, PPL Center will welcome the Lehigh Valley Spirits of the Major Arena Soccer League (MASL), competing at the highest level of professional indoor soccer in the world, for their inaugural season beginning in fall 2026.

PPL Center's commitment to providing a world-class fan experience has made it a favorite among visitors. The arena's features include modern amenities like a high-definition video board, premium seating options, and comfortable concourses. Partially constructed on the site of Allentown's former historic Dime Savings and Trust Company building, the arena incorporates elements of the original structure, creating a blend of historic charm and modern design. The arena's exterior along Hamilton Street features popular restaurants like Chickie's & Pete's and Tim Hortons as well as the Phantoms Pro Shop.

Ahead of the 2025-26 season, PPL Center received significant upgrades since the buildings' grand opening in 2014 with the installation of a state-of-the-art videoboard, ribbon board fascia, and outdoor marquee.

As the Phantoms continue to build their legacy in the Lehigh Valley, PPL Center remains the heart of their operations, providing fans with a dynamic and engaging home for hockey and entertainment.

1998 CALDER CUP

In just their second season of existence, the Philadelphia Phantoms captured the first Calder Cup championship in franchise history, completing a remarkable 1997-98 campaign with a 6-1 victory over the Saint John Flames in Game 6 of the Calder Cup Final on June 10, 1998. A sold-out crowd of 17,380 packed the Spectrum to witness Philadelphia secure its first championship.

Under head coach Bill Barber and veteran captain John Stevens, the Phantoms finished with the best record in the American Hockey League at 47-21-10-2 and 106 points, capturing the Macgregor Kilpatrick Trophy and the Mid-Atlantic Division title. Peter White powered the offense with 27 goals and a league-leading 78 assists for 105 points, earning his second consecutive and third career John B. Sollenberger Trophy as the AHL's leading scorer.

Philadelphia carried its regular-season success into the Calder Cup Playoffs, defeating the Rochester Americans in four games in the Western Conference Quarterfinals before sweeping the defending Calder Cup champion Hershey Bears in four straight games. The Phantoms then eliminated the Albany River Rats in six games in the Western Conference Finals to advance to the final. Philadelphia continued their dominance away from home, winning nine away games during the postseason—a total that remains tied for the most by a team in a single Calder Cup Playoff.

The Calder Cup Final against the Saint John Flames saw Philadelphia take control of the series with a 3-1 advantage through four games. After Saint John extended the series with a victory in Game 5, the Phantoms returned home and responded strongly, defeating the Flames 6-1 in Game 6 to capture the first Calder Cup championship in franchise history. Goaltender Neil Little anchored Philadelphia throughout the championship run, finishing the postseason with a 15-5 record while allowing just 48 goals in 20 playoff games. Offensively, Mike Maneluk delivered one of the most prolific postseason performances in franchise history, leading all Calder Cup Playoff scorers with 13 goals, 21 assists, and 34 points in 20 games. His performance earned him the Jack A. Butterfield Trophy as the Most Valuable Player of the Calder Cup Playoffs, putting the finishing touch on a historic championship season.

2005 CALDER CUP

On June 10, 2005, the Philadelphia Phantoms captured the second Calder Cup championship in franchise history, completing a four-game sweep of the Chicago Wolves with a 5-2 victory in Game 4 of the Calder Cup Final. A sold-out, standing-room-only crowd of 20,103 packed the Wachovia Center in Philadelphia for the championship-clinching victory, establishing an AHL record for the largest crowd ever to attend a Calder Cup Playoff game.

The championship came exactly seven years to the day after the Phantoms captured their first Calder Cup on June 10, 1998. Head coach John Stevens, who had served as captain of the 1998 championship team, became the 13th person in AHL history to win the Calder Cup as both a player and a head coach.

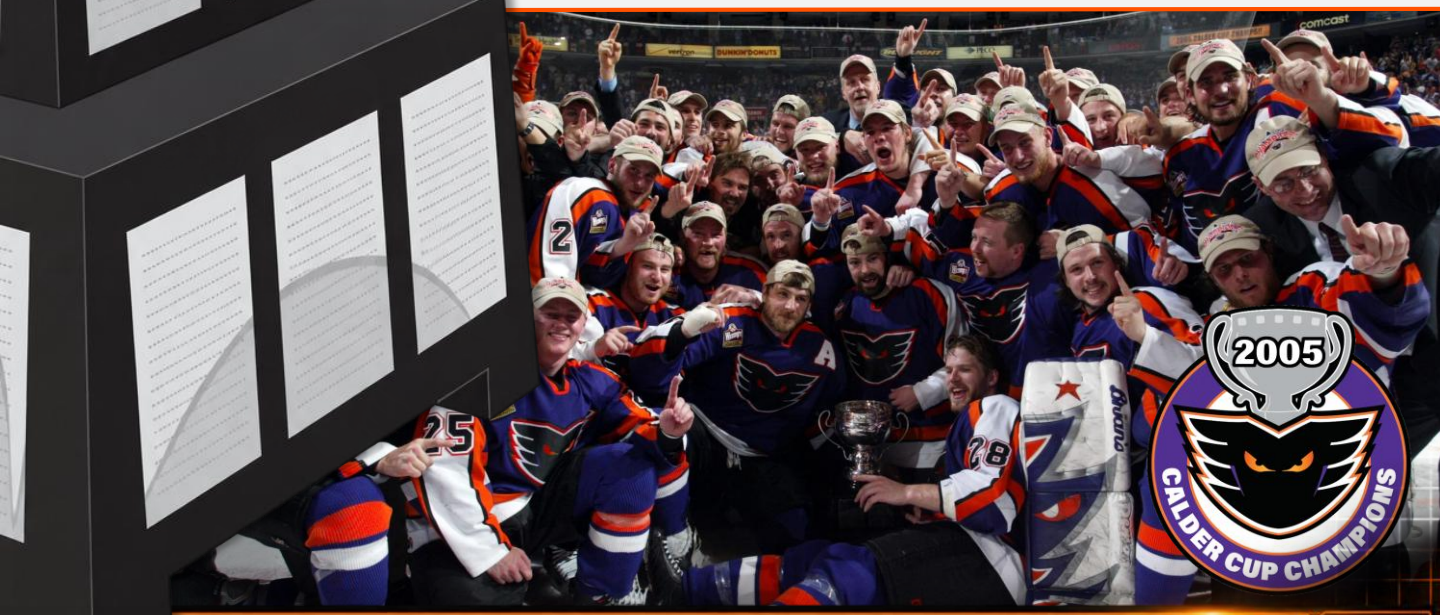

Philadelphia finished the 2004-05 regular season second in the East Division with a 48-25-3-4 record and 103 points. After dropping their first two games of the season, the Phantoms rattled off an AHL-record 17 consecutive victories from October 22 through November 27. Their success continued into the Calder Cup Playoffs, where Philadelphia defeated the Norfolk Admirals in six games, the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins in five and the Providence Bruins in six to advance to the Calder Cup Final.

The Phantoms then swept Chicago, finishing the postseason with a 16-5 record and a perfect 11-0 mark on home ice. Goaltender Antero Niittymäki earned the Jack A. Butterfield Trophy as the Most Valuable Player of the Calder Cup Playoffs after posting a 15-5 record, 1.75 goals-against average, .943 save percentage and three shutouts. He was particularly dominant in the Final, stopping 132 of 136 Chicago shots for a .971 save percentage over the four-game sweep. Rookie Jeff Carter led the AHL with 12 goals and 23 points in 21 postseason games, while Patrick Sharp finished second in playoff scoring with 21 points.

The championship capped one of the most memorable seasons in Phantoms history and featured a roster that included future NHL standouts Carter, Sharp, Niittymäki, Mike Richards, R.J. Umberger, Joni Pitkänen, and Dennis Seidenberg. In 2025, the franchise celebrated the 20th anniversary of the 2005 Calder Cup championship.

BIOGRAPHY

Snowden enters his second season as head coach of the Phantoms after previously serving two seasons as an assistant coach with Lehigh Valley.

Named the fifth head coach in Lehigh Valley history on July 14, 2025, Snowden guided the Phantoms through the 2025-26 season while continuing to play an integral role in the development of prospects throughout the Philadelphia Flyers organization. Lehigh Valley opened his tenure with a 6-3-1 record through 10 games, marking the best start by a new head coach in Phantoms franchise history, and remained in Calder Cup Playoff contention through the final weekend of the regular season.

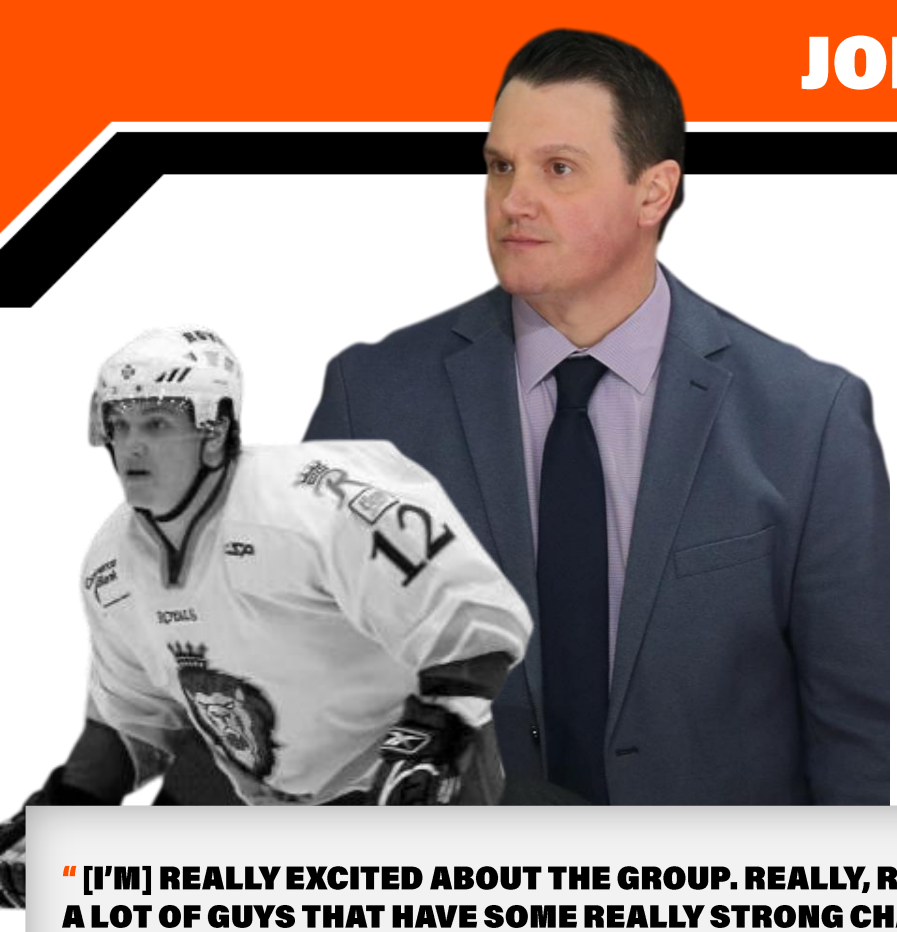

Prior to joining the Phantoms organization in 2023, Snowden spent two seasons as an assistant coach with the Toronto Marlies. Snowden also previously served two seasons with the ECHL's Newfoundland Growlers, where he was elevated to head coach midway through the club's inaugural 2018-19 season and helped the Growlers capture a Kelly Cup Championship in 2019. His tenure in Newfoundland followed three seasons as an assistant coach with the Orlando Solar Bears.

As a player, Snowden appeared in 986 professional games in North America, primarily in the ECHL and former Central Hockey League, recording 236 goals and 271 assists for 507 points. He played for the Reading Royals during the 2006-07 season, registering 12 goals and 18 assists for 30 points, and also had stops with the Texas Wildcatters, Greenville Grrrowl, Amarillo Gorillas, Bloomington PrairieThunder, Quad City Mallards, and Fort Worth Brahmas, among other teams.

Before beginning his professional career, Snowden spent time with the U.S. National Team Development Program's Under-18 Team and the U.S. National Team during the 1998-99 and 1999-2000 seasons. He later won the 2003 USHL Clark Cup championship with the Lincoln Stars. Snowden and his wife, Janelle, have three children: daughter Rowan and sons Aiden and Keegan, who both have participated in the Phantoms Youth Hockey program.

" [I'M] REALLY EXCITED ABOUT THE GROUP. REALLY, REALLY GOOD GROUP OF GUYS. A LOT OF GUYS THAT HAVE SOME REALLY STRONG CHARACTER VALUES IN THEM THAT WE'VE SEEN SO FAR AND THE WAY WE'RE DRIVING PRACTICE AND THE WAY WE TALK ON THE ICE TO EACH OTHER. IT'S BEEN REALLY GOOD. "

-SNOWDEN ON THE PHANTOMS' 2026-27 ROSTER

" I THINK THE BIGGEST THING THAT STANDS OUT TO US IS JUST THE HOCKEY I.Q. OF THE PLAYERS. [THEY'VE] REALLY BEEN ABLE TO GRASP THE THINGS THAT WERE THROWING AT THEM IN A QUICK AMOUNT OF TIME...COMPETITIVENESS IS ANOTHER THING THAT STANDS OUT. WE'VE BEEN HAMMERING THEM AND THAT THAT'S THE WAY WE WANT TO BE AS A VERY COMPETITIVE, HARD TO PLAY AGAINST [TEAM]...AND THEN WE HAVE A LOT OF GUYS THAT CAN MAKE PLAYS. "

NICK SCHULTZ

ASSISTANT COACH

BORN: AUGUST 25, 1982 (42)
HOMETOWN: STRASBOURG, SK

SEASON: 2ND

DRAFT: MINNESOTA WILD
ROUND 2 (#33 OVERALL)
2000 NHL ENTRY DRAFT

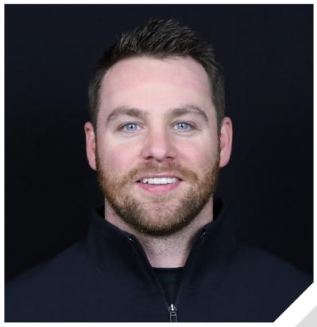

JUNIORS: PRINCE ALBERT RAIDERS

BIOGRAPHY

Schultz, a 15-year NHL veteran, enters his second season as an assistant coach with the Phantoms, working primarily with the team's defensemen.

Prior to joining the Phantoms coaching staff, Schultz spent six seasons with the Flyers organization in player development roles, including as Assistant Director of Player Development. In those positions, he worked closely with prospects as they progressed toward the professional level.

As a player, Schultz appeared in 1,069 NHL games over 15 seasons with the Minnesota Wild, Edmonton Oilers, Columbus Blue Jackets and Philadelphia Flyers, recording 30 goals and 145 assists for 175 points. He spent the final three seasons of his playing career with Philadelphia from 2014-17, appearing in 189 games and registering three goals and 26 assists for 29 points. Schultz retired following the 2016-17 season and returned to the Flyers organization in June 2019 as a player development coach.

TERRANCE WALLIN

ASSISTANT COACH

BORN: APRIL 6, 1992 (22)
HOMETOWN: YARDLEY, PA

SEASON: 2ND

COLLEGE: UMASS-LOWELL

BIOGRAPHY

Wallin enters his second season with the Phantoms, where he works closely with the team's forwards and power play units.

Previously, he spent three seasons as head coach of the ECHL's Maine Mariners and assumed the club's General Manager duties in April 2023, overseeing both the hockey operations and coaching sides of the organization. In each of his first two seasons as head coach, Wallin guided the Mariners to the Kelly Cup Playoffs, earning consecutive postseason appearances in 2023 and 2024.

Prior to beginning his coaching career, "Wally" played for the Mariners near the conclusion of a five-year professional career that included 300 games across the SPHL, ECHL and AHL. A native of Yardley, Pennsylvania, Wallin played collegiately at UMass Lowell, where he helped the River Hawks capture back-to-back Hockey East championships during his sophomore and junior seasons in 2013 and 2014.

PATRICK McDONOUGH

VIDEO COACH

BORN: MARCH 12, 1993 (33)
HOMETOWN: KENSINGTON, NH

SEASON 2ND

BIOGRAPHY

McDonough enters his second season with the Phantoms in 2026-27.

Prior to joining the Phantoms organization, he previously served as Video Coordinator and Assistant to Men's Ice Hockey Operations at the University of New Hampshire for three seasons, focusing on pre-scouts, live tagging, postgame analysis, and the use of advanced video and analytics platforms including Catapult and iBench tools, Sportlogiq, and InStat.

The Kensington, New Hampshire native brings coaching and leadership experience from the collegiate and youth levels, including time as Head Coach of UNH Women's ACHA Hockey and as an executive member of the New Hampshire East Eagles.

BRADY ROBINSON

GOALTENDING DEVELOPMENT COACH

BORN: DECEMBER 5, 1982 (41)
HOMETOWN: TRAIL, BC

SEASON 12TH

JUNIORS TRAIL SMOKE EATERS

BIOGRAPHY

Robinson is responsible for coaching and evaluating goaltending prospects throughout the Flyers organization while also scouting the amateur ranks to identify emerging talent. His role includes helping prepare future talent between the pipes.

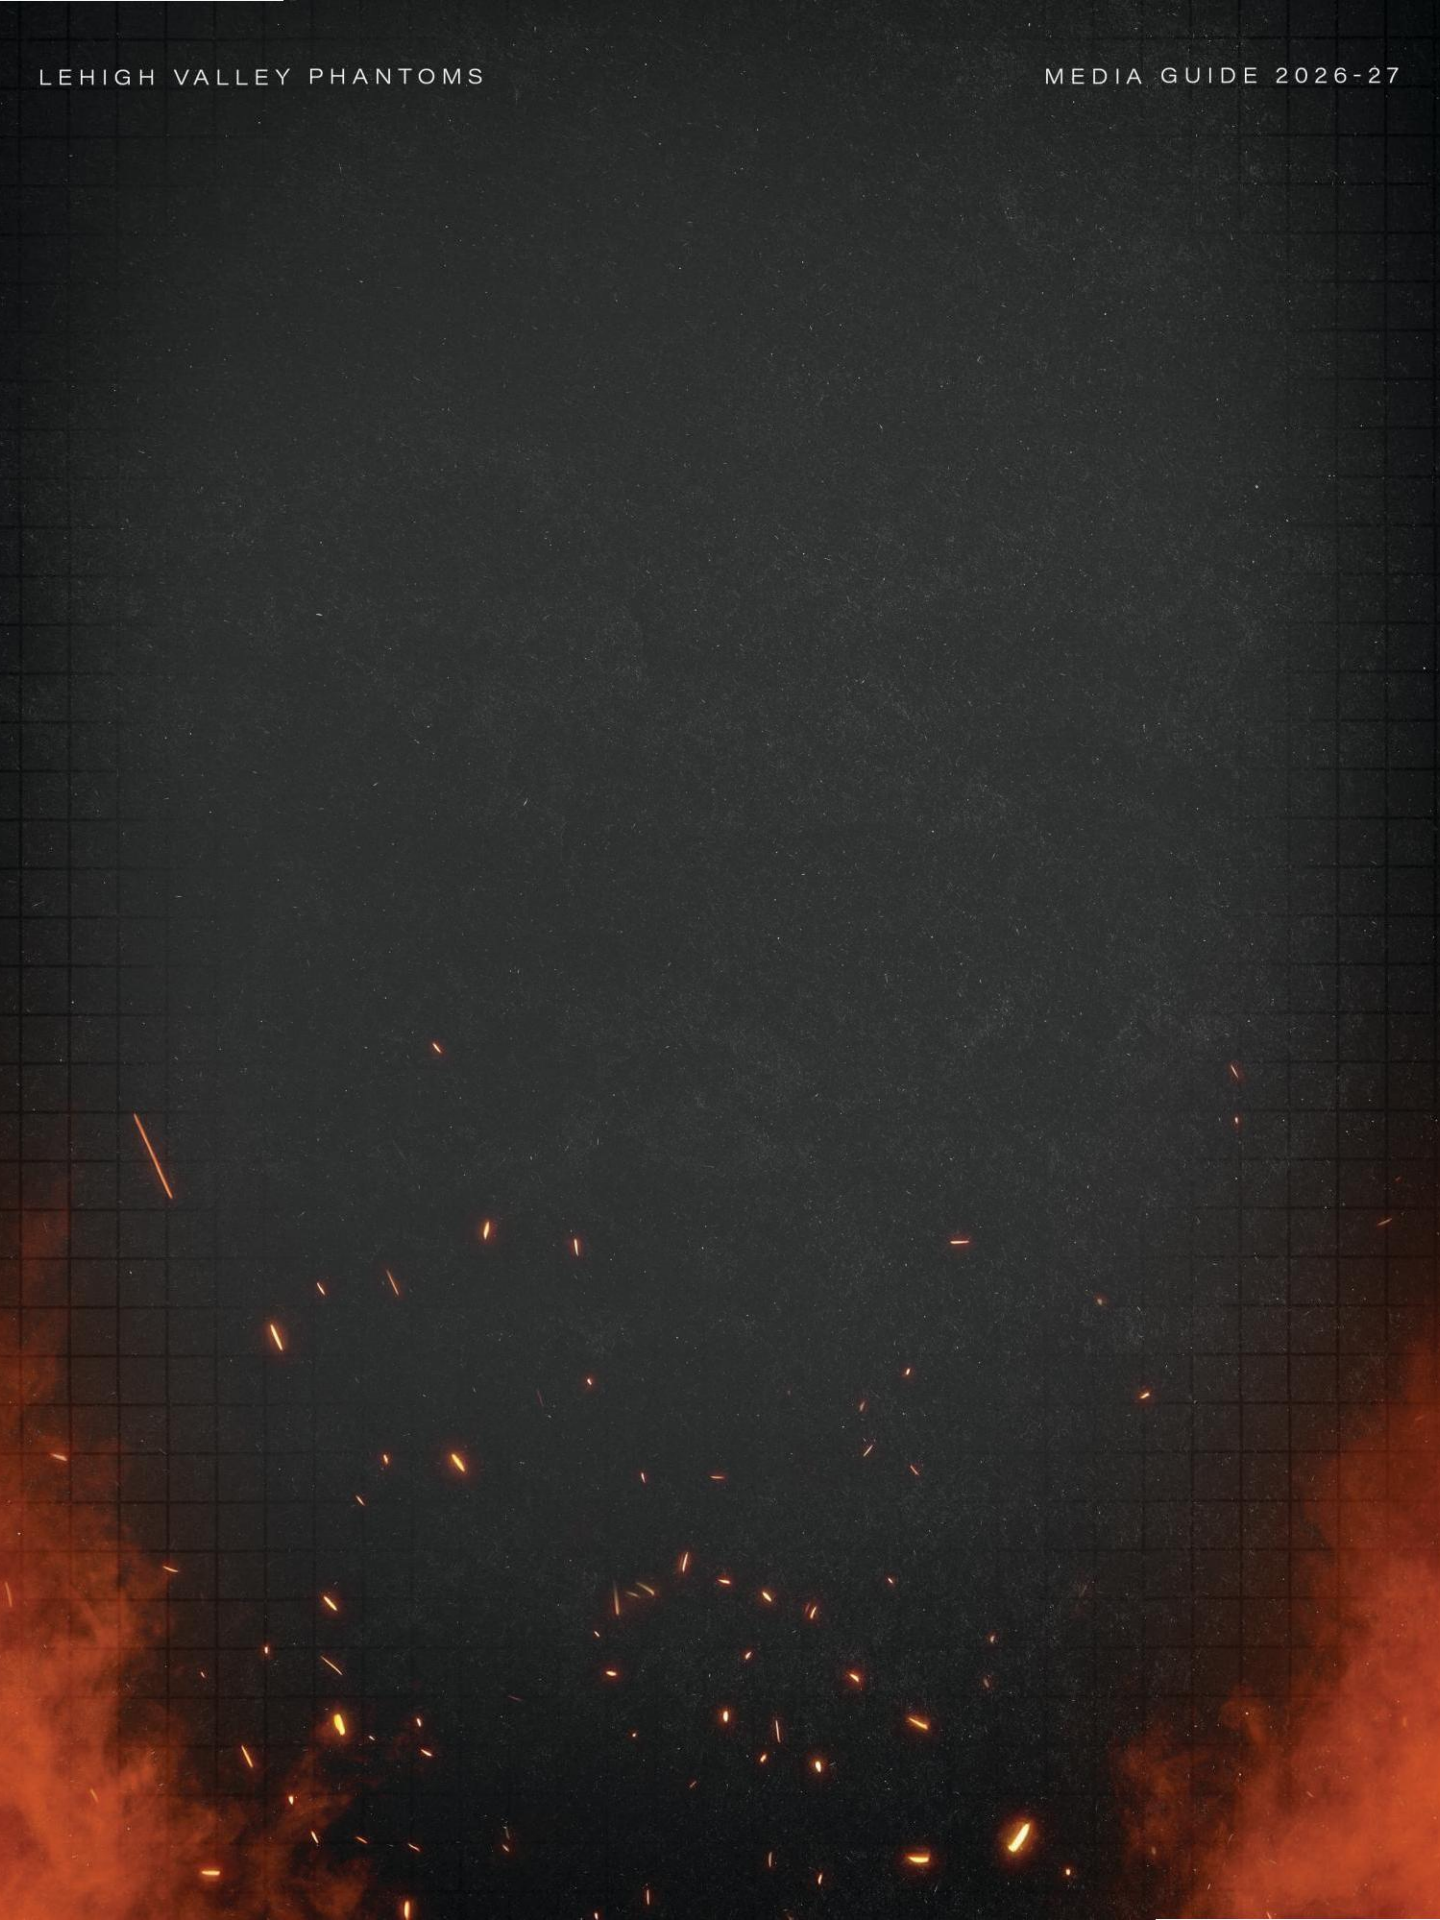

Prior to joining the Flyers organization, Robinson spent nine seasons as goaltending coach for the WHL's Victoria Royals. He joined the club in 2011 following the franchise's relocation from Chilliwack and played a key role in the development of the organization's goaltenders. In August 2015, he transitioned into a development coach role with the Royals. Robinson has also served on Hockey Canada's goaltender advisory board.

A native of Trail, British Columbia, Robinson began his playing career with his hometown Trail Smoke Eaters of the British Columbia Hockey League. He later earned a degree in Kinesiology from the University of Lethbridge, a background that has further helped shape his approach to coaching.

"THE COACHING STAFF'S DOING A GREAT JOB OF HAMMERING HOME SOME SYSTEMS. WE'RE KIND OF SWITCHING A FEW THINGS UP FROM LAST YEAR, BUT I THINK IT'S JUST A LOT OF HARD WORK AND DETAILS AND I THINK THE BOYS ARE DOING A GREAT JOB."

-WISDOM ON ADJUSTMENTS DURING TRAINING CAMP

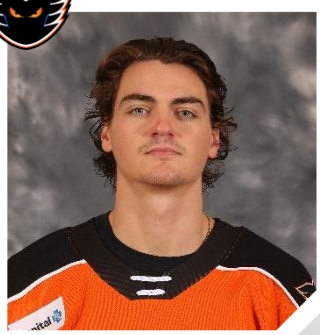

"IT'S FUN. IT'S SUPER EXCITING.
OBVIOUSLY WE'RE WAITING FOR THE GAMES. THAT'S WHAT WE PLAY FOR. BUT, PRACTICING AND BATTLING HARD WITH THE BOYS FOR TRAINING CAMP IS JUST AS FUN BECAUSE YOU GET THAT FEELING IN YOUR GUT LIKE YOU KNOW (HOCKEY IS) COMING...
(TIME) FLIES BY. LIKE EVERYBODY SAYS, YOU BLINK AND IT'S OVER... BUT, I STILL FEEL YOUNG. I FEEL FRESH. I'M READY TO GO."
